

Term 3 Week 9

17 September 2018

WELCOME

With assistance from some of our parents, students and teachers are finalising props and costumes for our musical performance. Students are doing daily rehearsals to polish their performance and are very excited for family to come and see them perform on Thursday.

Next term the school is considering moving our weekly newsletter to a fortnightly edition. This week we will send home a short survey to get your opinion. Please feel free to contact the school with regards to this if you have further questions.

NORTH COAST ATHLETICS

On Friday the 14th of September my Mum and I got up at 5:00am to get ready to leave to Riverside Park in Lismore. I went to Lismore to compete in the 200m sprint, I made it to the final but I got 8th. When I was racing it was 30°C and the track was so much different to the Coffs track and everyone's spikes would not dig in. After my race Mum and I left to go home.

SPELLING BEE

On Thursday 6th September I went to a Spelling Bee and it was great. The words were very well chosen and it was very well organised! I made it to the second round and I got stuck on the word boomerang. I had a great experience but I will try my best next time.

By Poppi- Anna

On Thursday the 6th of September I went to a Spelling Bee at Boambee Public School. The words they chose were challenging and some were a bit easier. I personally felt a bit nervous because there were a lot of people watching. There were lots of schools from the Valley but there were also schools from Coffs Harbour as well. I was lucky to have the experience of the Spelling Bee and I appreciated the offer very much.

By Lexus

On the 6th September Poppi-Anna, Lexus and I went to the NSW Regional Spelling Bee at Boambee Public School. We got to meet people from schools in our region like South West Rocks, Sawtell, Mullaway, Nana Glen, Coffs Harbour and many more.

We were offered drinks and some food after the Spelling Bee. I miss all the warm welcomes and friends from Boambee but are glad to have made lots of friends and mates at Upper Orara PS.

I got out on the 6th round with the word nobility.
